UNITED STATES MAIL

Arrive at Glenors by 12 m.

Sond required with bid, $250. POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, May 20, 1878.
Proposals will be received at the Contract Office of this Department until 3 o'clock p. m. of the 15th of July, 1878, (to be decided by the 31st of July,) for carrying the usails of the United States from October I, 1878, to June 20, 1877, on the following routes in the State of Virginia, and by the schedule of departures and arrivals herein specified, viz: INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS AND POST-MASTERS: Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the estent the Department may vance of the mail, a quarter's pay may ducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from, or deliver it into, a post office; for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for assigning the contract; for violating the Post Office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transperting porsons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a prorate increase on the contract pay. He may changes schedules of departures and arrivals in all carses, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. The Postmaster General may also discontinue or curtail the service, in whole or in part, in order to place on the route superior service, or whenever the public interests, in his judgment, shall require such discontinuance or curtail indemnity to contractor one month's extra pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rafa compensation for the amount of service retained and continued.

9. Payments will be made by collections from, service dispensed with, and a pro rata compensation for the amount of service retained and continued.

9. Payments will be made by collections from,

and also in reference to the weight of the mail,
the condition of the hills, roads, streams, &c., and all toil-bridges, turnpikes, plank-roads, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered; nor for alleged mistakes or misapprehension as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontisued, or other obstructions causing or increasing distance or expense occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay if the distance be not increased.

11. Bidders are cautioned to mail their proposals in time to reach the Department by the day and hour named in the advertisement, as bids received after that time will not be considered In competition with bids of reasonable amount received in time. Neither can bids be considered which are without the bond, oath and certificate required by section 246, set of June 25, 1574.

2. On reutes where the mode of conveyance admits of it the special agents of the Post Office Department, also post office blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. "Way bills" or receipts, prepared by postmasters or other agents of the Department, will accompany the mails, specifying the number and destination of the several bags, to be examined by the postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of bags and pouches.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such emissions, if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or ear, rier, three times the pay of the trip will be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repealed delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be de-

on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the cor proposal. Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum for two or more routes") cannot be considered.

14. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address,) and the name of each member of a firm where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address), and the name of each member of a firm where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed proposals furnished by the Department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

Bids altered in the route, the service, the yearly pay, or the name of the bidder, by erasures or interincations, should not be submitted; and if so submitted will not be considered in awarding the contracts. No withdrawal of a bid will be allowed unless the withdrawal of a bid will be allowed unless the withdrawal is received twenty-four hours previous to the time fixed for opening the proposals.

15. In case of failure of the accepted bidder to execute a contract, or of the abandonment of service during the contract term, the service will be readvertised and re-let at the expense of the milling bidder or contractor, and any accepted bidder who shall wrongfully refuse or fail to enter late contract in due form, and to perform the service described in his proposal, may be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, be fined and imprisoned therefor.

17. The Postmaster General reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant; and also to disregard the bids of tailing contractors and Stiders.

No contract for carrying the usal shall be made with any person who has entered, or proposed to contractors and Stidlers.

No contract for carrying the mail shall be made with any person who has entered, or proposed to enter, into any combination to prevent the making of any bid for carrying the mail, or who has made any agreement, or given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever to induce any other person not to bid for any such contract.

whatever to induce any other person not to bid for any such contract.

No bidder for carrying the mails shall be released from his obligation under his bid or proposal, now thistanding an award made to a lower bidder, until a contract for the designated service shall have been duly executed by such lower bidder and his sureties, and accepted, and the service entered upon by the contractor to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General.

By regulation of the Department, no carrier can be employed who is under sixteen years of age; and no bidder will be accepted who is under twenty-me years of age, or who is a married woman.

and no bidder will be accepted who is under twenty-one years of age, or who is a married woman.

18. The bid should be sealed superscribed "Mail Proposals, State of Virginia," addressed Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contract Office."

19. Every proposal must be accompanied by a bond with two or more sureties approved by a postmaster, and in cases where the amount of the bond exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000) by a postmaster of the first, second or third class. Bids for service, the pay for which at the time of advertisement exceeds five thousand dollars. ($5,000,) must be accompanied by a certified check, or draft, payable to the order of the Postmaster General, on some solvent national bank, of not less than five per centum on the amount of the annual pay on such route, and in case of new or modified service, not less than five per centum of the amount of said bond exceeds ($5,000) five thousand dollars.

The amount of bond required with bids, and the present pay when it exceeds ($5,000) five thousand dollars, are stated in the advertisement under the appropriate route.

20. All checks deposited with bids will be held until contract is executed and the service commenced by the accepted binder. Checks will then be returned by mail, on the written request of the bidder, or deserved to any one on his order.

21. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the Department by or before the 20th day of Sentember, 18-76, otherwise the accepted bidder will be considered as having failed, and the Postmaster General may proceed to contract for the service with other parties, according to law.

Assignments of centracts, or of interest in contracts, are forbidden by law, and consequently cannot be allowed. Neither can bids, or interest in bide, be transferred or assigned to other parties. Hidders will therefore take motice that they will be expected to perform the service awarded to them through the whole contract term.

22. Section 220 of the act of June 8, 1892, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mill shall be "awarded to the lowest bidder tondering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, cortainty, and security thereof." Under this law bids that propose to transport the mails with "celerity, certainty, and security," herving been decided to be the only tegal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, hone every and excurring," and have the profession of such transportation than may be new bid, and cannot be received so as to interfere with regular compet
